

Idaho Health Facilities Authority Names New Executive Director

February 17, 2022
Boise, Idaho

The Idaho Health Facilities Authority (the "IHFA") Board of Directors today announced its selection of Christian Anderson as their new Executive Director. Mr. Anderson will succeed John Sager, who will be retiring on March 31, 2022. Mr. Sager has served the IHFA with distinction as Executive Director since December 2017. The Board is appreciative of Mr. Sager's commitment as his contributions and accomplishments have added to a strong foundation upon which the IHFA will continue to build.

Tom Zabala, the IHFA's Board Chairman noted that "Christian brings years of knowledge and leadership experience in public finance at Zions Bank where he provided municipal advisory and bond purchasing services to municipalities throughout Idaho, including to several IHFA borrowers. IHFA looks forward to the creative and collaborative skills and vision he will bring to all aspects of our mission. We are excited to have him join our team."

The IHFA's mission is to assist eligible nonprofit health care providers to obtain and maintain access to low-cost, tax-exempt private or public capital market financing. The IHFA is committed to helping borrowers meet the challenges of financing facilities and equipment to improve the health and quality of life of the citizens of Idaho. The IHFA is an independent body, corporate and politic, established by the Idaho legislature in 1974 and is located at 1087 West River Street in Boise, Idaho.
